TRUMAN HAS TALKS WITH TWO LEADERS

President, Grasping Reins As the Presiding Officer, Calls on Churchill and Stalin

SPECTACULAR SETTING

By ERNEST B. VACCARO AND KENNETH L. DINN

Potsdam, July 18.—(P)—President Truman, grasping the reins as presiding officer of his first Big Three conference, went today to talk things over separately with Prime Minister Churchill and Premier Stalin.

Potsdam skies were cloudy, but the parley atmosphere appeared considerably cleared.

The president first conferred and ate luncheon with the prime minister and then visited the Soviet generalissimo for a similar personal session later in the afternoon.

Mr. Truman was selected yesterday as conference chairman.

With him on at least the latter visit was Secretary of State James F. Byrnes, the president's erstwhile Capitol Hill partner in many a compromise mission to smooth the congressional pathway for wartime commitments which the late President Roosevelt made at just such international sessions as this.

It was a new and far more spectacular setting to an old story for both of them—on an international basis now. Truman's swift step to get down to cases individually with both Churchill and Stalin indicated the Missouriian was taking the Potsdam program right in his stride.

There was no definite information as to whether another formal conference was scheduled for later this afternoon. However, it would be for Truman to form promptly to call an official meeting to clinch any informal agreement which might be reached during his personal visits.

The president was scheduled to lunch with Churchill and then, along with U. S. Secretary of State James F. Byrnes, he expected to make an afternoon call on Stalin.

Truman's visits to the other two members of the Big Three followed the order in which they had visited him—Churchill on Monday and Stalin on Tuesday—thus continuing the Potsdam program.

Nevada Survives Flaming Battle

Washington, July 18.—(P)—Veteran of two wars, the battle-scarred Nevada absorbed damage from a flaming suicide plane and five hits from an Okinawa shore battery but stayed in the fight.

The navy today told the story of the actions which occurred as the famous old ship was operating as part of a formation assigned to obliterate enemy installations in the island.

The Kamikaze struck before daylight March 27, causing 60 casualties, including ten enlisted men and one officer killed and 30 seriously injured.

Despite her damage, the Nevada was back in action within four hours.

The next week, on April 5, while still pounding away at Japanese airfields, shore defenses, supply dumps and suspected troop concentrations, a coastal battery opened fire.

Hitler Back In the News With Report He Is In Antarctic

By the Associated Press

Adolf Hitler, variously reported dead or escaped to one place or another, was brought back in the news again today by a report that he had taken up a residence on an island in the Antarctic.

Following a statement by Cesar Ameghino, Argentine foreign minister, that there was no truth in a published rumor that Hitler and his alleged bride had reached Argentina by the German submarine U-530 and were living in Patagonia, the French Brazzaville radio relayed a report that the pair were in the Antarctic.

British Heavy Bombers May Join Americans in the Pacific

By HAMILTON W. FARON

Guam, July 18.—(P)—British heavy bombers may join American fighters in the Pacific, increasing to ten the Allied air groups coordinating their devastating raids on the Japanese homeland.

Lt. Gen. Barney M. Giles, deputy commander of the U. S. Army Strategic Air Forces (USASTAF), has completed a series of conferences with British Air Marshal Sir Hugh Lloyd involving "the possible assignment of a British heavy bomber force to work under USASTAF," Giles' office reported today.

Already engaged in daily assaults on the Japanese homeland with fire, fragmentation and high explosive bombs, rockets and strafing are the 20th Air Force's B-29s; fleet airwings 1 and 18 with their Privateers, Liberators and Marauders; the 5th and 7th AAFs with their Thunderbolt fighters and Liberator and Mitchell bombers; the army's 7th Fighter Command with its Mustangs, and the Second and Fourth Marine Aircraft Wings with their Corsairs, Avengers and Mitchells.

At least four other air forces also are attacking the Japanese empire, but not the homeland. These are the 13th AAF and Seventh Fleet aircraft, from the Philippines area, and the 11th AAF and the North Pacific fleet airwing which among them attack from the Solomon Islands to the Kuriles.

Japan's Domei agency said 60 American Liberator and Mitchell bombers dropped explosives on Shanghai yesterday, hitting the industrial area.

Chinese forces operating east of the Hsiao-Kwangsi railroad captured Liangfeng, 15 miles south of Kweilin, on a subsidiary highway between Liuchow and Kweilin, Chinese reports said.

Liangfeng is only two miles from Kweilin.

By G. MILTON KELLY

Calcutta, July 18.—(P)—Allied officers said today that a climactic battle appeared imminent in the bend of the Sittang river in southern Burma where the Japanese are massing troops on the east bank.

Signs pointed to a powerful thrust against the Japanese thrust across the river north of Pegu in an effort to unite with and rescue thousands of enemy troops cut off in Allied-occupied territory west of the river.

The enemy force on both sides of the river is divided into three units of approximately 2,000 men each. These men are hungry and disease ridden, but still are full of fight. The enemy objective apparently is to link up the southernmost of these groups and apply such pressure on Allied troops that the entrapped northern group also can escape across the Sittang.

WORLD BANK PLAN NEARING VOTE TODAY

Administration Leaders Drive for Final Ballot on Bretton Woods Program

BATTLE AMENDMENTS

BULLETIN

Washington, July 18.—(P)—A bill to amend the Bretton Woods monetary legislation until after the new international conference, Taft proposed that consideration of the house-approved bill be delayed until November 15 to await the calling of a world trade conference by the social and economic council of the projected United Nations organization.

Washington, July 18.—(P)—Administration leaders drove toward a final vote on the Bretton Woods world bank-fund plan today. They expected senate approval, but not without a stiff fight on a series of proposed amendments.

Chairman Wagner (D-NY) of the banking committee said he hoped for a decision by tonight. The senate geared for a long day by convening an hour earlier than the usual noon meeting time.

Wagner told reporters he didn't expect more than 15 votes against the bill, which proposes a $9,100,000,000 world bank to help nations reconstruct and an $8,800,000,000 fund to stabilize their currencies.

Other proponents, noting the increasing vocal opposition on the senate floor yesterday, said there might be a score of "no" votes.

The fight is expected principally on amendments by Senators Taft (R-Ohio), Millikin (R-Colo.) and Thomas (D-Okla.). These would specify that the fund could not be used "as an excuse" to abrogate existing debt or trade treaties, spell out the requirement that other nations eliminate currency restrictions and place silver on the same monetary base as gold.

Taft has led the opposition to the plan.

SOLDIER IS HELD ON NON-SUPPORT CHARGE

Pittsburgh, July 17.—(P)—An honorably discharged soldier, jailed by his wife on a non-support charge 10 days after he got back from 44 months overseas service, was freed on a writ of habeas corpus yesterday by County Court Judge Harry Montgomery.

The soldier, Martin E. Huber, of Sarver, Butler county, said he got home July 4 and was arrested on information filed by his wife, Mrs. Alberta Huber, 21, of Tarentum.

A hearing on the non-support charge was set for today. The Hubers have no children.

Community Canning Center To Open Thursday Evening

Finishing touches are being made today on the installation of the old Bayer Furniture store on Pennsylvania avenue, west, for the Community Canning Center. When all is completed the place will be most splendidly fitted up for the handling of large quantities of vegetables, fruits and meats by the women of the city who desire guidance in the care of their field and garden products.

The formal opening of the Center will take place tomorrow evening with a full and complete demonstration of the work to be done and every woman who is interested is invited to be present to watch the work performed. The demonstration will be conducted by Mrs. Freda Bitman, of St. Marys, who has been in charge of the Elk county work for some time and has scored a signal success. She will show all of the processes required in the handling of vegetables and the ease with which the work can be done in the center.

While in many communities a small charge is made for the use of the Center to pay for gas, etc., the Warren Center will give its services absolutely free. Miss Edna Thompson, of Russell, a teacher in the Beatty school has been especially trained in the work and will be in charge of the center. There will be at all times one of the demonstrators in attendance.

It must be understood that those who use the center must do the work involved themselves. There will be no work done by those in attendance they being there merely to give needed advice and instruction. However with their aid the work will be fairly easy and efficient and much more easily done than at home. A system whereby each and every can is initiated so that ownership can be shown at any stage of the process has been worked out and those who bring vegetables or fruit will find that they will take home exactly the products they bring to the center.

All work must be done after appointments have been made. Each woman must be present at the time of her appointment.

Loaded Bus Falls Into Swollen Creek

Richmond, Va., July 18.—(P)—A heavily laden Greyhound bus unbound from Norfolk plunged into the rain-swollen waters of Gillette creek in the edge of Richmond today when a bridge over the normally tiny stream gave way. Only one of 45 persons aboard, this one an infant, was killed.

Capt. A. D. Garton, of the Richmond city detectives, said that Mrs. Nora Hammel, 29, of Delta, Pa., had reported that her three-month-old infant, Donna Gene Hammel, was lost in the waters.

Chief of Police E. H. Organ said he was informed that 44 passengers, as well as the driver, were aboard the bus.

Chief Organ said 37 persons, one holding a child, were on top of the all-but-submerged bus when he arrived, and that six or seven swam to safety on the west side of the creek.

Order Your Turkey For November 22d

Harrisburg, July 18.—(P)—Pennsylvania will observe Thanksgiving, November 22 as Thanksgiving Day, Governor Martin announced today.

"Several inquiries have been received recently as to the date on which Thanksgiving will be observed this year," the governor said in a statement.

"Congress has, by federal approved November 26, 1941, designated the fourth Thursday of November as the date for the observance of Thanksgiving. In the interest of uniformity, that date, Thursday, November 22, will be designated as Thanksgiving Day in Pennsylvania."

Extra Rations Are Granted Coal Miners

By the Associated Press

The OPA's promise to grant extra rations to the nation's coal miners heralded the end today of the "no-meat, no-work" strike of some 10,000 coal miners and foundry workers in southern Illinois.

Leaders of the AFL Progressive Mine Workers and the United Mine Workers said they had ordered the strikers back to their jobs after they had been advised of the OPA's program which it hopes to make effective early in August.

Elsewhere across the country some 35,000 other workers stayed away from their jobs in more than a score of cities. But, unlike the coal miners and foundry workers, their walkouts and strikes stemmed from labor disputes, and not in protest over meat shortages.

The expected return to work by the miners and foundry workers would reduce the number of idle throughout the country to the lowest figure in the past several days. The first group of miners quit their jobs last Friday in protest of a shortage of meat and others have followed. Leaders had protested they "can't dig coal on lettuce sandwiches."

The miners had demanded 50 extra red points per man a month. An OPA spokesman in Washington said a detailed announcement of the plan would be made later.

DEATH OF WRIGHT CO. OFFICIAL ACCIDENTAL

Chicago, July 18.—(P)—Officials of the Wright Aeronautical Corp., Cincinnati, were in agreement that the death of Arthur J. Sikora, 39, engineering manager of the firm, appeared "accidental" and not at the hands of an enemy agent.

Varley Young, head of the company's public relations department, had at first expressed the suspicion that foul play had befallen Sikora, who plunged to his death from a hotel window here early yesterday.

Soon after the proceedings closed two sisters of Mrs. McKinney came to the office and they entered an adjoining room with their sister and Sheriff Linder and held a reunion. During the time they talked Mrs. McKinney evidently asked whether or not she could attend the funeral services for her husband. The request was conveyed to District Attorney J. H. Goldstein and Attorney Glassman and a call was made to Dr. Paul Fago, who is attending the woman.

Dr. Fago stated that he was opposed to her being present at the funeral.

Enlisted Personnel Found Communistic

Washington, July 18.—(P)—A house military subcommittee made public today testimony of its chief counsel listing 16 commissioned and enlisted army personnel whose backgrounds reflect Communism in some form.

The testimony was presented behind closed doors by H. Ralph Burton to a subcommittee appointed recently to investigate reports that army commissioners were being given to persons with Communist connections. The subcommittee, headed by Representative Thompson (D-Tex.), made no comment on the testimony.

"I have found certain persons who hold commissions and also some enlisted personnel in the army whose background reflect Communism in some form," Burton testified.

Washington, July 18.—(P)—The cabinet officer is known to have made no plans yet for a London visit. It is possible, however, that he will accept the assignment in any event because he also is petroleum administrator for war.

Ickes, last remaining member of the late President Roosevelt's original cabinet, would be the seventh cabinet officer to leave under Mr. Truman if the latter accepts the resignation that has been on his desk for three months. The chief executive said at his last news conference before leaving for Berlin, however, that he had no plans to replace Ickes.

Hearing In Fatal Shooting Is Fixed For Next Tuesday

Attorney for Defendant in Youngsville Homicide Enters

Plea of "Not Guilty" Upon Arraignment Before Justice of Peace

IS RETURNED TO COUNTY JAIL UNDER GUARD

Comely Adaline McKinney was formally charged with murder this morning for the shooting of her husband, Wendell McKinney, at their Youngsville home Monday evening. A plea of "not guilty" was entered.

Arraigned before Justice of the Peace Tracy M. Greenlund at 10:30 this morning, the young woman brought from the county jail by Sheriff L. E. Linder and Miss Mina Reider, of the sheriff's office. The charge was read by Justice of the Peace Greenlund and Attorney William Glassman replied for Mrs. McKinney, "The defendant enters a plea of not guilty."

Following the entering of the plea Mr. Glassman asked for a hearing in the matter and after some discussion it was arranged to hold the hearing Tuesday, July 24, at 2 p. m.

Justice Greenlund then gave to the sheriff a commitment to the county jail for the woman until the hearing.

Mrs. McKinney this morning showed marks of the strain which she has undergone since the tragedy at their home Monday evening. Her eyes were heavy and reddened from tears and her face appeared drawn. When brought into the justice office she wore a blue dress, white blouse and cerise coat. Her hair was carefully arranged high in front and in long curls about the nape of the neck. Her diamond and her wedding ring had been transferred to her right hand and on her left ring finger she wore a ring with a red setting.

Soon after entering the office of Mr. Greenlund the prisoner laid her arm on a desk in front of her and leaning her head upon it wept for some time alone. Miss Reider escorted her from the room and in a few moments she recovered her composure. A bottle of spirits of ammonia gave her relief at intervals. During the proceedings which occupied but a few moments she clenched and unclenched her hands and twisted her handkerchief.

Soon after the proceedings closed two sisters of Mrs. McKinney came to the office and they entered an adjoining room with their sister and Sheriff Linder and held a reunion. During the time they talked Mrs. McKinney evidently asked whether or not she could attend the funeral services for her husband. The request was conveyed to District Attorney J. H. Whole Town Aids Convicted Soldier

Scranton, July 18.—(P)—A move seeking release of Pvt. Donaid Hicks of Kingston, N. Y., serving a 25-year sentence on a charge of rape is supported by 1,625 residents of Corby, England, where the attack allegedly took place.

Edward W. Warren, Hicks' counsel, asserted in U. S. circuit court yesterday that Hicks was convicted illegally by an army court martial in December, 1943, because under the articles of war, the verdict must be unanimous and in Hicks' case conviction was by a three-fourths vote.

Federal Judge John Biggs, Jr., said he considered it extremely unusual for a whole town to come to one man's defense. The petition of the British citizens maintained that Hicks was convicted unjustly.

Hicks was transferred to the federal penitentiary at Lewisburg, after he was sentenced by the court martial.

Judge Biggs reserved decision in the matter.

Ickes To Demand Showdown From Truman On His Status

Washington, July 18.—(P)—The 71-year-old cabinet dean, will be the next member of President Truman's official family to ask for clarification of his status.

This was learned definitely today, together with the fact that if a satisfactory reply is not forthcoming there is little chance that Ickes will remain as secretary of the interior. There is only slightly more likelihood that he will go to London on an Anglo-American oil treaty mission.

Despite Mr. Truman's recent announcement that Ickes would make the trip to work out the final draft of a new oil agreement, the cabinet officer is known to have made no plans yet for a London visit. It is possible, however, that he will accept the assignment in any event because he also is petroleum administrator for war.

FLEETS STALK JAPAN COAST UNMOLESTED

Radio Tokyo Admits Big Guns of U. S. and British Warships Demolish Huge War Plants

COURSE IS CONCEALED

By LEIF ERICKSON

Guam, July 18.—(P)—Through smoke that spiraled from shattered war plants north of Tokyo, Japan watched today for the next blows to be loosed against the home islands by the combined might of American and British warships.

Tokyo made no effort to conceal its fear of new bombardment by Adm. William F. Halsey's Third Fleet and its companion British ships. Radio silence has concealed their course since they broke off shelling Honshu's east coast at 12:05 a. m. today.

In the sky the Nipponese watched for return of carrier-based planes sent out by Vice Adm. John S. McCain's prowling task force 38.

(The Japanese radio said new attacks already had come. London reported hearing a broadcast that the Honshu east coast was being bombed for an hour at noon today by 16 Allied warships.)

Tokyo said American and British carriers sent 500 planes back over the Tokyo area today, following yesterday's raid by 1,500 carrier aircraft.

(The enemy admitted Japanese helplessness by stating that the Allied fleet is "unable to attack U. S. at any chosen time and place.")

More than 2,000 tons of explosives were showered on targets for 20 miles along the Honshu coast in the midnight bombardment. The fleet went about the job leisurely and kept its radio working as it hovered only six miles offshore.

Targets were picked carefully from Mito, 55 miles northeast of Tokyo and 10 miles from the sea coast, to Hitachi and Suikawa, about 80 miles northeast of the capital. With no opposition, the results were devastating.

Associated Press Correspondent James Lindsey, with the U. S. Third Fleet, reported that an engineering works, a steel plant, a copper refinery and an arms factory along the coast were destroyed.

He said the fleet was within range of enemy fighter planes for many hours but that they failed to appear.

Adm. Chester W. Nimitz in announcing the British battleship King George V and the 45,000-ton USS Iowa were among the attackers had mentioned only the Hitachi area, which contains vital copper smelters as well as concentration and aircraft, electrical and engine plants.

Associated Press Correspondent James Lindsey, aboard one of the bombarding warships, reported the rail and factory center of Taihagi near Hitachi also was a target as the great battlewagons opened fire with nine-gun broadsides.

Despite an overcast sky which hindered aerial observation, ships' crews were able to watch the flashes of their big shells landing amidst enemy war plant buildings. The thunder of their explosions

Civilian Train Travel Will Be Cut Further

Washington, July 18.—(P)—Civilian train travel, already more of an ordeal than fun, soon will become "more uncomfortable than ever."

This prediction came today from the Office of Defense Transportation in connection with an order giving the military services first call on almost all passenger rolling stock.

All passenger coaches, baggage and express cars, parlor and club cars, lounge and observation cars and diners and diner-combination cars went into a pool to be available on demand for use of the armed forces. The only exception is sleeping cars, already eliminated on runs of 450 miles or less.

Further curtailment of civilian sleeper car service is expected within the next few months, with another 1,000 cars expected to be assigned for military use. About two-thirds of all Pullman sleepers already in military service, and the shift of another 1,000 regular leave only about 1,500 in regular operation.

ODT Director J. Monroe Johnson reiterated the radio address last night that further steps to curtail civilian travel "will be taken when and if necessary."

Need of Guard Is Outlined By Gen. Hayes

Plans for the future development of the State Guard organizations of Pennsylvania, Maryland and Virginia, looking to recruiting activities to bring the units to full strength, were discussed at a meeting called by Maj. Gen. Philip Hayes, commanding general of the Third Service Command, and attended by ranking officers of the State Guard and the Army Service Forces.

A statement by General Hayes keynoted the meeting and emphasized the continuing necessity for maintenance of the guard units at the peak of efficient organization and operation. He stressed the fact that in the redeployment of the nation's armed forces from Germany to the Pacific, tremendous demands are being made upon the Army Service Forces in the continental United States. He also urged enlistment in its ranks of soldiers returned from overseas and discharged.

It was mutually agreed by the participants in the conference that there would be a definite need for the State Guard for a considerable period after the conclusion of the war against Japan, and until the National Guard was returned and reorganized.

General Hayes reminded those present that the State Guard was set up nationally to provide the governors of states with an instrumentality to effectively meet the responsibility for the life and protection of human beings and property within his state. His is the responsibility, the officer asserted, for handling emergencies, domestic disturbances and natural disasters such as floods, cyclones and things of that nature.

Pacific 1-2 Punch

Here is the team that the Army Air Forces has assigned to the task of directing the aerial destruction of Japan. Its two main branches are the Strategic and the Tactical. To the Strategic Air Force, under General Spaatz, goes the job of heavy bomber assault on Japan's industries, communications and home bases. With headquarters on Guam, he will be directly responsible to General Marshall. The other "fist" of the aerial one-two punch is the Tactical Air Force, under General Kenney. With probable headquarters on Okinawa, he will operate under General MacArthur. His flyers will work in closer conjunction with the ground forces than Spaatz's behind-the-lines bombers. They will work close to the fighting lines, bombing enemy troop concentrations, strong points, disrupting combat area communications and transportation. Kenney's Far Eastern Air Force includes the 5th, 7th and 13th Air Forces. Spaatz's strategic group is made up of the 20th Air Force (B-29's) and the 8th Air Force, of European fame.

Children At Cornplanter Camp Today

Camp Cornplanter, near Dunkles Corners between Ludlow and Kinzua has been opened for the summer by the Salvation Army. This morning a group of children moved into the camp. They will spend some time there and during the remainder of the summer season various groups will be cared for.

The camp was erected by the U. S. Forestry service and is one of the finest camps to be found in the state. With a large assembly hall, complete kitchens and dining service, eight cabins and a hospital cabin the camp facilities are complete. A fine swimming pool is also located near the camp.

Designed primarily for the use of underprivileged children, the camp is operated by the Salvation Army through an arrangement with the forest service. At various times groups of children, Army workers, members of bands, etc., are in camp there during the summer season.

Runaway Boys From Kane Are Located Here

While on patrol Tuesday Officer Charles Musante noted two young lads near the Cozy Corner acting in a suspicious manner. The boys seemed to be somewhat confused and when the officer started for them to ask a few questions the two boys ran. The officer gave chase and caught the boys near the Baird Tire Shop.

The boys gave their names as Alvin Reynolds, 14 and Donald Reynolds, 10, brothers, of Kane. The lads said that they left home about 9 a. m. Tuesday morning and at 11:30 were being taken charge of by the police.

A telephone call was made to their home in Kane and the little tourists were called for by their parents.

New Grand Exalted Ruler of B. P. O. Elks From Wheeling

ELKS NEW LEADER

Wade H. Kepner

Wheeling, W. Va., civic leader elected Grand Exalted Ruler of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks at emergency wartime meeting held in New York City, July 16, 1945. Contrasting with Elks' Conventions of other years, attended by thousands of delegates, featuring ornate costumes and elaborate parades, the 1945 streamlined meeting was held quietly, without fanfare, and was attended by a small group, in keeping with wartime travel restrictions.

"It's a problem, Smith's allotment is 211 and two-thirds bottles!"

ALL RIGHT—we'll admit we haven't yet had to figure in fractions of bottles when we divide up the available supply of Pabst Blue Ribbon among our retailers. The point is, though, that we do try to make sure that everyone gets a fair share of this great beer.

Today, more and more people are discovering that no other beer tastes quite so good as blended Pabst Blue Ribbon. So... if you can't always find Pabst... ask again next time, won't you?

Wade H. Kepner, a member of Wheeling, W. Va., Lodge No. 28 was elected July 16th to become the new Grand Exalted Ruler, succeeding Dr. Robert S. Barrett. Mr. Kepner's election took place in New York City at the special meeting which was held in lieu of the 81st annual Grand Lodge session scheduled for that time but canceled due to wartime restrictions on travel.

A member of Wheeling Lodge since 1924, Mr. Kepner has faithfully and diligently fulfilled his duties to Elksdom through the years. He served his lodge as a member of the degree team, Lecturing Knight, Loyal Knight and Leading Knight, becoming Exalted Ruler in 1930. During his term as Exalted Ruler of Lodge No. 28, almost 200 new members were initiated.

For 10 years he served as member of the board of trustees of Wheeling Lodge, and for many years was busily engaged on the social and community welfare committee of No. 28, which has raised and given more than $150,000 to local charity during the past 15 years.

Mr. Kepner served as a member of the Grand Lodge auditing committee for one year and on the Grand Lodge activities committee for three years. In February, 1940, he was appointed Grand Trustee by Grand Exalted Ruler Henry C. Warner to fill the unexpired term of Joseph G. Buch, and at the Grand Lodge session held at Houston, Tex., that same year, Mr. Kepner was elected a Grand Trustee for five years. Since then he has served the board as secretary, home member, approving member, vice-chairman and, finally, chairman.

He is an honorary life member of Wheeling Lodge and an honorary life member of the West Virginia State Elks Association.

Mr. Kepner is the first member from the State of West Virginia to be accorded the highest honor that the Order can bestow, election to the rank of Grand Exalted Ruler. A native of Wheeling, W. Va., where he was born July 11, 1902, Mr. Kepner was graduated from Dartmouth College in 1923, and was married on September 22 of the following year to Miss Martha Noy. They have three children, Helen, Betty and John.

The new Grand Exalted Ruler is vice-president of the Security Trust Company of Wheeling. He also owns three funeral homes there and is a past president of the National Selected Morticians and of the West Virginia Funeral Directors Association.

He maintains an active supervision in the management of his 300 acre stock and dairy farm in Orangeville, Ohio, and also operates a retail milk business in Sharon.

He is a member of the board of directors of the Ohio Valley Industrial Corporation, is a member of the board of directors of the Ohio Valley Board of Trade, and formerly served on the executive committee of the Nasmemo Corporation, Chicago.

Mr. Kepner has always displayed an active interest in civic affairs. He is a former commissioner of the Wheeling Fire Department, a former commissioner of playgrounds and public recreation in that city, and a past president of the Kiwanis Club. He is a director of the Wheeling YMCA and vice-president of the Wheeling Automobile Club.

Grand Exalted Ruler Kepner plans to spend much of his time at national headquarters in Chicago and also in visiting the subordinate lodges throughout the country. His headquarters, however, will be in Wheeling and he will continue to make his permanent residence there.

THEY DREAM OF COMING HOME

A "coming home" booklet, which lists and suggests means of meeting certain situations that may arise to puzzle the families and friends of returning war veterans, has been prepared by the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company.

A special interest is felt by everyone in these homecoming veterans. The keynote finds expression in the following excerpts:

"Let us not forget that the great majority of men will return from the wars clear and purposeful and enriched in mind, unmarred and toughened in body, matured and strengthened in character, ready to take a vital part in solving the problems of peace. . . . Our husbands and sons have shown the world that Americans are pretty swell guys. . . . Not all of them will say it, but all of them know that in lonely homesick hours in alien lands the love for their homeland has grown bigger and they have grown bigger, too."

The booklet, "Coming Home," stresses the known fact that men and women in the armed services have been dreaming of "that homecoming—building it up in their minds to a point where going home seems almost like going to heaven. And we have been dreaming, too, thinking how wonderful it will be to have them around again where we can see them and talk to them and know that they're all right."

The main thing required to transform those dreams into reality and make the homecoming of these young veterans—and older ones, too—a complete success, to bring them happiness as they re-enter every-day civilian life, is for their families to welcome and greet them with affection and understanding and for their friends to treat them as normal companions at play and at work.

But, always, both families and friends should let these returned veterans feel that there is never lacking a sense of respect and appreciation for all they did and all they are—men who participated in the greatest of all wars.

THE CRIME OF WAR

The United States has taken the lead in correcting one of the staggering contradictions of modern history. Through its chief counsel for the prosecution of Axis war criminals, Justice Robert H. Jackson, this government is now on record as stating that aggressive war is a crime.

Throughout the civilized world, the planning and execution of individual murder is punishable by death. But in some parts of the civilized world, the planners and executors of the mass murder which is aggressive war have been honored as heroes by their countrymen and sometimes given the highest position that those countrymen could bestow.

International law has encouraged this adulation during the last century by admitting no difference between aggressive and defensive war. Nations have condemned war as an instrument of policy. But they have not seen fit to brand the aggressor's tactics for what they actually are: murder, kidnapping, piracy, rape, arson, burglary, assault.

Now the United States has declared, through its chief counsel in the matter, that not only is aggressive war a crime, but that the creators and prosecutors of aggressive war are criminals who must stand trial for their lives.

It is far past time that this was said, but it is well that it has been said at last. This declaration, concurred in by other nations, can become a part of international law which, as Justice Jackson points out, is the result of agreements, customs and decisions, not legislation.

So there is no need to fear a lack of precedent. Neither is there need to fear that this declaration will conflict with the United Nations organization. Rather it should add another bulwark to the defense of peace.

Do thoughts of an empty coal bin next winter induce sleep these summer nights?

Victory gardens in the borough and surrounding area are beginning to pay dividends.

Bonds Over America

PULASKI MEMORIAL

Sympathy with Poland and its struggle for freedom is strongest in our centers of Polish population but it runs back through the whole pattern of American history to the heroism of Brigadier General Casimir Pulaski, who gave his life for our liberty at the battle of Savannah. Polish people came to Pennsylvania, New York and other states. A strong band that fled Austrian persecution from Galicia settled in Manchester, N. H. There folk of Polish blood renamed a park "Pulaski Common." There, too, is one of the nation's great statues of Pulaski, sculptured by Lucien Gosslin. Towns named Pulaski and the Pulaski Skyway in New Jersey remind us that were Pulaski alive he would be exhorting Americans to buy more War Bonds to supply the men fighting for the ideals that were his and are ours.

Chapter 30

MADGE looked thoughtfully after her. "It's funny, Uncle Louie, but I actually like Mario Drew."

"So do I," he chuckled. Then he turned businesslike as he took Madge's empty glass out of her hand, rinsed it, and carefully, ever so carefully, emptied into it the contents of the two vials. His eyes twinkled as he handed the glass back to her. "With my compliments."

Madged looked angelic as she raised the glass to her lips; even Uncle Louie looked angelic as he watched her drain the glass of its last precious drop.

Madge was surprised. "It has a delightful flavor!"

"And why shouldn't it?" he asked tenderly. "When it is made out of nothing but hopes and dreams?"

"I want to go home!" cried Madge softly. "I want to go home to John!"

MADGE and Uncle Louie tipped into Winston Manor's great hall.

"I want to freshen up a bit before I see John," whispered Madge.

"And I," whispered Uncle Louie, "am very anxious to get started on my new formula."

Madge stared at him in amazement. "What, another?" she asked.

"And this one, my dear," he whispered confidentially, "is going to prove, by far, more startling and revolutionizing."

"Uncle Louie," she said, as he was leaving, "thank you again for all you have done." Then she kissed him on his forehead.

Madge felt suddenly weary as she walked down the hall to her bedroom. And when she entered the room, her bed became too tempting. I'll lie down for just a few minutes, she thought, it will refresh me, and then I'll find John and tell him the wonderful news. The moment Madge's golden hair touched the pillow she was sound asleep. The eventful, exciting day had proven too exhausting.

MADGE was shocked out of her sleep by a terrific explosion. She sat up, bolt-like, screaming. "Uncle Louie! Uncle Louie!" She became more excited when she saw, in the semi-lighted room, two figures standing by her bed. "Thank God, Fred," she heard John say to the doctor, "she's snapped out of it!"

"I have to help Uncle Louie!" she said, as she started to arise from the bed; but the gentle hand of the doctor restrained her.

"Take it easy, Madge," he said. "But, darling," said John, "Uncle Louie has been dead for over forty years!"

"Madge," said the doctor quietly, "you've been dreaming. That explosion was a clap of thunder. Then, as though the electrical storm which raged outside wanted to prove the doctor's point, there was another terrifying clap of thunder which shook the very foundation of the house."

"Oh," wept Madge, as though her heart would break, "poor, darling Uncle Louie has been blown back into the family closet!"

Madge was living too much in her dream to notice that she was still wearing the azure blue dinner gown and John's Great-grandmother Dee's set of charming garnets that she had donned in celebration of her twelfth wedding anniversary.

"Darling," said John to the tearful Madge, "try to forget your dream."

"I can't," she wailed, "Uncle Louie was so good to me. He helped me win you back from Mario Drew."

"Darling," said John, "I hate to disillusion you or belittle Uncle Louie, but nothing has been going on between Mario Drew and myself."

"But," stared Madge, "that article I read at the dinner table—"

"Gossip columnists are always making mistakes and, before they have a chance to contradict themselves, they stir up unnecessary situations—such as tonight's."

John took her hand. "So help me, darling, I don't even know Mario Drew."

"What?" gasped Madge. "John is telling the truth, Madge," said the doctor quietly. "He showed me the news item that caused you to faint."

"But Madge still could not believe it, as she asked, 'You don't even know Mario Drew?'"

"No, darling. Now, instead of John's true statement making Madge happy, it made her cry all the harder."

"Oh," she wept like a child. "Uncle Louie and I worked so hard to save you!"

JOHN raised her tear-stained face and smiled. "Dearest, you are going to forget you ever had a dream, and do you know why?"

"No," she sniffled. "Because," he smiled, "Fred has some wonderful news for you."

Madge wept more copiously. "And I," she wailed, thinking of Uncle Louie's miraculous formula of pink and blue, "had some wonderful news for you, but now—"

"She hesitated, then cried out wretchedly, 'Oh, if only dreams could come true!'"

"Madge," said the doctor quietly, "you are going to have a baby."

"What?" she gasped. "I am going to have a baby?"

"Yes," said John in adoration. "Oh, no!" said Madge.

"Oh, yes!" said the doctor. "But you are both wrong," insisted Madge. Her face melted into a soft smile and her violet-blue eyes became dreamy. Then she spoke slowly, cherishing her every word.

"I am not going to have a baby—I am going to have twins!"

"Twins!" gasped John. "How do you know?" asked the doctor.

"I told you Uncle Louie was a genius."

And to this very day, John and Dr. Fred Bliss have never been able to fathom Madge's uncanny prediction, for her dream did come true, in pink and blue!

One big reason for the Coke shortage

When the world is turned upside down by war—it's hard to put your finger on the reason for a lot of things. The Coca-Cola shortage, for instance.

The answer is that there's a world-wide sugar shortage caused by the disorder and confusion of war. And of course the less sugar we get, the less Coke we get. But there's one fact you can count on—the quality of Coca-Cola never changes. The Coca-Cola you get is the real thing—the quality is the same today as you have always known.

So next time your dealer says "Sorry, no Coke today"—don't forget he can't help it any more than you can. Just try to make the best of it—same as he does—and please remember to ask for Coke again tomorrow when you shop.

Be Forewarned

The U. S. Department of Agriculture says that "clothes moths are found in nearly all dwellings, regardless of location", and advises that if you have been fortunate so far, it is time to stop stretching your luck. The department offers here two facts which may seem unrelated, but which may have considerable bearing on your state of mind next fall.

One relates to the Wool Labeling Act. Among other things, this act provides that all garment and blanket fabrics containing more than five per cent of wool must be labeled in such manner as to indicate the amount of each fibre in the fabric.

The second is that moths will attack wool wherever it is found. This means that no material with any wool content is safe from them, whether it is a 100 per cent wool garment or one containing considerably less in combination with larger proportions of either rayon or cotton.

A great many of us are used to thinking of articles of clothing or blankets as rayon and, therefore, unattractive to moths. Whereas, a good percentage of rayons contain at least some wool. Blankets, for instance, can vary all the way from 20 to over 80 per cent of this fabric in combination with wool.

The department states, also, that storage, both cold and fumigable, is the best protection against moth injury. One of the prime requisites of satisfactory storage is cleanliness, particularly if you are going to store your things at home. Food spots on garments are a natural invitation to Mr. and Mrs. Moth and their entire family of from 100 to 300 each.

Many of us have pet ideas on how best to combat moth hazards. Most of the reliable methods, incidentally, are also effective against carpet beetles. These are not so prevalent as moths, but, as if to make up for this, have a wider range of appetites. Carpet beetles have even been known to eat through leather goods.

CORYDON

Corydon, July 17—The downpour of rain Saturday failed to keep away some 45 persons attending the box social held in the IOOF hall and sponsored by the Youth Fellowship of the Methodist church. Games furnished the evening's diversion and the proceeds derived from the sale of boxes and the small charge for games was most gratifying, amounting to forty-four dollars. Worthy of note is the painstaking way auctioneer Marshall Gardner put across the successful sale.

Miss Lena Schuler left Saturday to spend an indefinite time in Warren with relatives and friends.

Cooper-Barrett Deal Proving Profitable to Bredon; Cards Win, 3-2, as Bums Slaps Bucs

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer)
Sam Bredon's right to be known as the David Harum of baseball remains unchallenged today off incomplete returns of his Cooper-Barrett deal with Boston. Mort Cooper yet may win a pennant for the Braves when the millionaire owners excavate enough supporting talent but the proof is in the table that Charley "Red" Barrett is doing a great job of passing the Red Birds toward a possible fourth straight flag.

(By Joe Gardner)

Saturday, August 4, this year will be a date long remembered by certain Warren county citizens because that date will bring misery and woe, sore backs and aching muscles, to say nothing of the arnica and liniment that will flow in amounts equal to a good sized trout stream, before the old-timers get straightened out again after their annual baseball game against the Jamestown old-timers on the State Hospital grounds. Entire proceeds will go to Warren county's underprivileged children and the game will again be sponsored by the Kiwanis Club.

This article is to serve notice on those old-time ballplayers who dare not sidestep their obligation to Warren county's underprivileged kiddies that they had better get those muscles unlimbered, drag out the old moth-eaten monkey suit and be ready to start hostilities against Jamestown at 2:30 p. m. Saturday, August 4, on the Warren State Hospital's diamond, then two weeks later be ready to go to Celoron Park—Sunday, August 19—to play for another good cause, but this time for a Jamestown charity.

We have already contacted a number of old-timers and, judging by the amount of squawk put up by them, we can safely say that they will be out in force once more, as they always have in the past. We have patiently listened to stories of woe and physical breakdown and expect to get more of the same, so, old-timers, when you are approached to play ball please save time and have your stories written down or at least well rehearsed, so that our time won't be wasted, because you well know that you will be on the job, anyhow.

In our estimation, the Warren Kiwanis Club is one of the first public-spirited organizations it has been our pleasure to work with and it behooves us, fans and players alike, to make their cause for underprivileged children a huge success.

Gunder Haegg Runs Mile In Record 4:01.4

By EDWIN SHANKE
Malmö, Sweden, July 18—(AP)—The four-minute mile, long considered an impossibility by many leading track and field experts, is going to be accomplished soon says Gunder Haegg and the swift Swedish runner believes he's going to be the one to turn the trick.

The long-striding, haberdashery salesman came pretty close to doing it yesterday when he was clocked in the record-shattering time of 4:01.4 in bettering the old standard set by his rival countryman, Arne Anderson, on July 1, 1943.

The old recognized mark of 4:02.2 in the first meeting of the two this season. The 29-year-old schoolmaster ran a 4:01.6 mile a year ago today but that mark has not been acted on yet.

The giant Gunder set a blistering pace as the first quarter was reeled off in 56.6. They turned the half mile in 1:58.5. When the time was announced to the 14,000 spectators they scented a new record in the making and cheered wildly for the two runners who have been breaking all sets of middle distance records in the past few years.

They roared into the last quarter after a 61.2 third with Haegg several meters in front. As they neared the tape the former Malmö fireman looked over his shoulder and obviously was surprised that Anderson didn't uncork his usual finishing sprint.

The Gunder had plenty left in him after the race. He said the

"This is the only way I can get Paw away from the table since I've been servin' Wheaties."

Hitch on to a dish that helps turn nourishment, enticing flavor in make breakfast a real meal. Team up milk, fruit, and Wheaties. You'll stick around for second helpings—when you try Wheaties.

"YES MAN"

My name is Dorothy Baker. I'm the "Yes Man" at Personal Finance Co. . . . that is—I'm the one who likes to say "Yes" to requests for Personal Loans.

You see—I'm the manager of our office—the one who's responsible for building up our business. The more times I say "yes" to requests for loans—the more business we do. And since making Personal Loans of $25 to $250 or more is our ONLY business—that's mighty important to me.

Therefore, if you need extra cash at any time—whether a little for a short time or a lot for a long time—you can depend on my doing my best to say "yes" to you.

Next time you can use a loan give me a chance to say "Yes"—won't you? I'll consider it a favor. See me at Personal Finance Co., 216 Liberty St., second floor, over Lester Shoe Store. Phone 285.

Independents, N. Y. All-Stars Vie Tomorrow

The Warren Independents will meet the New York State All-Stars tomorrow night on the State Hospital diamond at 6:15, according to an announcement by Joe Gardner this morning. The Indies will replace the Forgers, who were to have met the New York staters in the third and deciding contest of their series.

The Independents, originally formed to make way for younger players in the game, will have their hands full when Joe Nagle's crew comes here. The All-Stars trimmed the NFO's, 7-4, in their first gathering here, but suffered a later 5-4 setback.

Lon Warneke Hurls For Cubs Today Against Bums

Chicago, July 18—(AP)—Lon Warneke, the "Ol' Arkansas humming bird," returns to the role of starting pitcher for the Chicago Cubs today for the first time since 1943.

The veteran righthander, who recently rejoined the Cubs after quitting baseball to work in a

Behind the Lines

Vincent Gray, substitute guard on last year's championship basketball squad under Joe Massa, has received notice to report to Harrisburg next Wednesday for examination prior to entering the services. His induction will make a total of six of last season's team who have entered service. Tom Juliano and Joe Sealise, first string forwards, left about a month ago for duty; Eric Nystrom, sug guard who left at mid-term; Kilar MacDonald, manager, and Bob Hamerbeck, first string guard until he was inducted in March, are all serving their country. Of the 1943-4 squad, every man on the five is in service. Dick Finley and Fred Beyer, guards, Jim Eaton, giant center, and Chuck McLean and Joe Sealise, forwards, have all been inducted. It just goes to show you that physical training hurts no one.

Sports aren't quite so healthy, though, when serious accidents occur. The other day at the Kane Country Club golf course, Bruce Jeffrey, recently discharged from the army, stumbled and fell against a Baltimore and Ohio switcher train which passed (Turn to Page Ten)

The greatest war financing job in history has been completed—and Warren County played a BIG part! From the Pennsylvania War Finance Committee, the 19-county Western Pennsylvania Area headquarters in Pittsburgh, and from the Secretary of the Treasury, Warren County has been congratulated for its wonderful performance, and sincerely thanked for its vitally important contribution to the war effort. These thanks and congratulations are not due just to the Executive Committee, nor to any other one group or individual—but to literally HUNDREDS of loyal, persevering war bond workers and to THOUSANDS of equally loyal and equally patriotic Warren county citizens who bought bonds during the "Mighty Seventh" War Loan, and to MANY local firms and individuals who were called upon to help in numerous ways. As Chairman of the Warren County War Finance Committee for the 7th War Loan, I want to publicly add my thanks and congratulations to all the others that have been so valiantly won.

W. E. YEAGER, Chairman for the 7th War Loan.

The announced goal of the 7th War Loan in Warren County was to raise $1,800,000 from individuals to purchase three B-29 "Superfortresses" to carry on to victory the war against Japan. That goal has been won; that promise to our armed forces has been kept—THREE B-29's WILL CARRY THE NAME OF WARREN COUNTY OVER THE HOME ISLANDS OF JAPAN! Individuals of Warren County purchased nearly $750,000 MORE WAR BONDS in the Seventh than in the Sixth War Loan—an accomplishment that BOTH "buyers" and "sellers" can well be proud of. When you add to this performance that of our county corporations and their over-subscription of 430%, you have nearly six and one-half million dollars put into the war by this single county of around 40,000 population, in a single war loan drive. That was the SEVENTH. Now let's get ready for the coming EIGHTH! We've still got a war to win—perhaps a bigger war than the one we've won in Europe. So there will be ANOTHER bond drive in the fall—ANOTHER chance for Warren County to invest the dollars that save men's lives. Let's KEEP ON buying bonds so our boys can KEEP ON the road to VICTORY!

HADFIELD MARBLE AND GRANITE WORK

WILL U. WORRY WARNS...

"That's right... These two mid-summer months can hurt a car more than the rest of the year put together. It's the heat, not the humidity! Batteries will quit next winter because they ran too dry now. Parts will break down later, because they didn't have protection now. Tires will quit that could have gone many miles farther. Y. M. Facilities Replace USO In Many Ways

Some service men home on furlough or leave, and others recently discharged, fail to avail themselves of privileges offered them without charge by the Y. M. C. A., according to Ralph H. Wagner, general secretary of the "Y," who asks that the relatives and friends of these men help spread the good news among those eligible to enjoy the facilities opened to them.

Although the Y.M.C.A. facilities are being used daily by men in uniform and a few discharges have claimed the privileges made available to them, there is still reason to believe that some men are unaware of what the "Y" freely offers them. The Times-Mirror joins the Y. M. C. A. in appealing to its readers to acquaint themselves with the facts and then to pass the word along at every opportunity.

Since there is no U.S.O. or Service Center in Warren, the "Y" is doing its best to make up for this lack and has thrown open its facilities to men in uniform. The facilities available to these men without any charge whatsoever include the swimming pool, showers, game room and reading room. Most service men have learned by experience that the "Y" door is open to them wherever they go, but occasionally a man is found who does not realize this.

A fact seemingly less generally known is that men honorably discharged from the service have a three-months free membership in the Y.M.C.A. waiting for them. All the "Y" asks is that they come in to the office and file a regular membership application. Application should be made within two months after discharge, but this provision will be temporarily waived for any who have not previously heard of the offer. And, by the way, the women are not forgotten, for a swimming-membership is offered on the same basis to those discharged from the women's branches of the service.

Howard Schambers, who once repaired automobiles in a Buffalo garage and is a nephew of Charles Schambers of Warren, was decorated with the Bronze Star for meritorious service when he fixed a disabled American tank under heavy fire on a French battlefield, his bravery enabling the tank crew to take the vehicle back into action. In service four and one-half years, Sgt. Schambers is a veteran of the North Africa, Italy, Sicily, Germany, Belgium and France campaigns. He has a brother, Pfc. George A., in New Guinea, and another brother, Sgt. Norman J., in France.

Boland, hospital apprentice first class at the National Naval Medical Center at Bethesda, Md., and will have a furlough at home before his outfit begins training for action in the Pacific.

Bomber Pilot Of Sheffield Is Given DFC

From a 9th Air Force bomber base in Belgium it is learned that Lt. Donald C. Burns, bomber pilot and son of Mrs. Esther E. Burns of Sheffield, has been awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross for extraordinary achievement during aerial combat.

Lt. Burns has returned to the United States since completing his tour of duty with the 344th medium bombardment group now stationed in Belgium.

The Sheffield flier was cited for bringing home his battered B-26 Marauder after it had been badly damaged over the target. After being hit by enemy fire over Germany, and losing all radio communication, Lt. Burns piloted his bomber to friendly territory and then made a single-engine landing.

He also wears the Air Medal and nine Oak Leaf Clusters.

Boland is a member of the 93rd mechanized cavalry reconnaissance squadron and served with the 13th in the battle of the Ruhr Pocket and in the drive through Bavaria and in the drive through Austria. News About County Man From Pacific

News of Warren county service men has come from many points on the globe and through many sources, as may be proved by Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd R. Price, Sr., of Bear Lake, who have just heard indirectly from their son, Lloyd, Jr., in a letter written by Lt. (jg) Warren A. McMinnee to the Kiwanis Club of Tillamook, Ore., and forwarded to them by A. G. Beals.

Lt. McMinnee was district attorney of Tillamook county at the time Lloyd, Jr., spent a winter in the Beals home and the two became well acquainted. Writing from somewhere in the South Pacific, the young officer relates that Price came aboard his ship after recognizing the young lieutenant. He says of the Bear Lake man:

"He's a pharmacist's mate on the island a few hundred yards from where we are located. I had him stay for dinner and fed him

Tillamook cheese. You know, cheese is our substitute for milk, fresh vegetables and fruit, all in one; most of our lately bears the Cloverdale factory mark.

"After dinner, Lloyd wanted to show me his dental office. What a place! A tent, two chairs, one dentist and Lloyd, the pharmacist's mate, assistant—beautiful equipment but no power. The foot treadle like the sewing machine does it. They handled hundreds and hundreds of cases. At the moment business was slack and I'll tell you the story.

"It seems some ingenious sailor got the idea of helping out on the foot treadle—he couldn't bear to have the doctor pushing on the pedal with one foot and drilling with the other—occasionally the drill would slip off and into a jaw on account of the unsteadiness, so he connected a battery-operated motor generator in lieu of the foot treadle. He hooked it up and all went well, only he forgot to ground the thing. A rain came and the tent was damp. Said dentist began to drill out a filling and contacted metal, with the result it almost electrocuted both dentist and patient. Since then, they can't even get patients. Even though they have gone back to the foot treadle system, Young Price is a grand fellow and in good health."

Softball has taken on a new lease on life in Warren. For several years now, the sport has declined rapidly. This year, with playing conditions worse than ever before, managers and officials of the league got together and with a lot of hard work have made a smooth-running league. The St. Joseph's church team has also added new pep to the game, especially with the announcement this morning that the Catholic team would defend the Western Pennsylvania Amateur Softball championship.

A Doctor Will Tell You

By Mullen Drug Co.

It may be that no friend of yours will tell you that your breath offends, but your doctor or dentist will. These professional men have no false scruples about the truth.

The truth can make you free of this most disturbing trait. If the dentist gives you a clean bill of healthy teeth, see your doctor. He may discover any one of several reasons for a foul breath. Perhaps it is caused by infected tonsils, perhaps by nasal catarrh, perhaps you have any one of a half dozen other reasons.

Relief is possible and certain when the basic cause is determined. Act upon the doctor's diagnosis and prescribed cure.

Be sure to select a competent druggist.
